

Bryn Monahan

Bryn Monahan is a highly respected Family Enterprise Consultant with Relative Solutions, specializing in the complex intersection of shared economies and family dynamics. With expertise in business operations, family offices, and shared family assets, she excels in communication, governance, leadership, succession planning, and education within family enterprises.

Bryn serves on the Board of Directors for Foster Holdings Inc. and FAM Legacy Solutions, previously chairing 5/4ths, a Family Investment Group. She also volunteers with SEFOF, formerly serving as Advisory Committee Chair from 2020-2022, and is on the advisory board for StoryKeep, a legacy film production company. As a thought leader, she has been a featured speaker at industry conferences such as FOX, FFI, and Campden. She is currently a moderator for Campden Education's Module "Becoming Responsible Stewards of Family Wealth."

Bryn holds a Psychology degree from Skidmore College, and an MBA in Family Enterprise and Entrepreneurship from LSU. Her exceptional contributions have earned her induction into the SEFOF Hall of Fame, solidifying her reputation as a trusted advisor and visionary leader in the family enterprise space. She lives in Tampa, FL with her husband and their french bulldog, Yoda.
